SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., OCTOBER 26, 1918

NO. 11

PIONEER RESIDENT OF LAKEVILLE SUCCUMBS

Edward Dowd, 87, pioneer, who died at Lakeville Tuesday morning was one of the widely known and much respected residents of the county. He came to California in the pioneer days, the days when the gold fever was at its height. He prospered with steadily increasing success. A representative pioneer of California and an honorable citizen, he was respected by all who knew him. The manly upright character that he had manifested thru life, made him honored among his fellow men. His passing is mourned deeply and reverently. The late Mr. Dowd was a man of positive nature and deep religious convictions and lived in accord with his professed principles. He believed and practiced real charity. A faithful member of the Catholic Church, he seldom missed service. He was the father of former assessor Dowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnester and family motored to Sebastopol to visit the O. W. Gericke family.

Mrs. Will Helberg who is at Dr. Hennessey's sanitarium in Napa is slowly improving. She has been a sufferer from ulcer of the stomach which has been causing her trouble for two years past.

Mrs. E. E. Bennett who has been down to Santa Cruz to the Eastern Star convention was expected home last evening.

Chester Studley has purchased the Sol Carriger ranch. His marriage to Miss May Shofner has been indefinitely postponed as Miss Shofner has had a nervous breakdown and is in a hospital in a serious condition. She had been a sufferer from spinal trouble some years ago.

NONELLA FAMILY EXPRESS APPRECIATION

Mrs. S. Nonella and family are very grateful for the many honors bestowed upon their boy who gave up his life while in the army and was buried here last Friday.

The mother who was with the young soldier when he passed away at Camp Fremont, is most appreciative of the courtesies of the army officials, the city officials of Sonoma, friends and employees of the California Glove Company who did so much to comfort her and the family during their hours of sorrow. There are 14 living children, 5 boys and 9 girls in the Nonella family but the passing of Steve was a sad blow to the proud mother of the young patriot for he was a good dutiful son and despite the large family, he is greatly missed from the home where the service flag with its two proud stars had given so much joy. The other son in France with the army does not yet know of the death of the brother whom he hoped to meet "over there".

CARD OF THANKS

In behalf of myself and family I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all friends for their kindness to us in our recent bereavement of our loved son and brother, Steve J. Nonella. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nonella and family

WANT CITIZENSHIP

"Over The Top" $61,700 Sonoma Valley's Proud Showing in Fourth Liberty Loan

$223,700.00 TOTAL SUBSCRIBED AND EVERY DISTRICT OVER-SUBSCRIBES. HONOR FLAGS GO TO ALL TWELVE. RALLY HERE SATURDAY NIGHT ENTHUSIASTIC

Sonoma Valley's patriotic response to the Fourth Liberty Loan has given us a high place on the Honor Roll of Sonoma County and the splendid work of the captains in each district won honor flags for the twelve divisions, all of which oversubscribed their allotments.

At the rally last Saturday night a big crowd gathered to hear the Home Band and to read the figures of the successful drive but when the numbers were finally flashed on the screen, showing the fine work and a surplus at that time $55,000 over the quota of $160,000 the enthusiasm indicated the big surprise Sonoma Valley's triumphant showing was to even the most optimistic. On Monday night the drive was closed and the following still more splendid results recorded:

Miss Eileen Cowan, chairman of the Enterprise district for the Liberty Loan, got 50 subscribers and went over her quota of $3000 just $1100, making in all $4100, despite the fact that in that district several families had money in the bank which failed at Santa Rosa. Miss Cowan did splendid work.

The following is a telegram received by Frank M. Burris, Chairman of the Sonoma Valley Liberty Loan Committee from James W. Ramage, Chairman of the Sonoma County Liberty Loan Committee.

"Your wonderful campaign has for the fourth time put Sonoma in high place on Honor Roll of County. Heartiest congratulations to you and those of your organization who have done actual field work in 100 per cent style."

Mr. Luce and his assistant, who were managing the office of the campaign here in Sonoma Valley wish to extend through the columns of the Index-Tribune, sincere thanks and appreciation for the fine work of the chairmen at the various districts and their co-workers.

Much of the good work done was the result of young America's interest in the Drive. The patriotic songs and speeches of the school children, both High and the lower grades, had a magic effect on the Loan.

Following were some arguments of High School speakers: "In this critical situation President Wilson would be worse than helpless should there be the least let-up of the support of the government at home. Failure of the 4th Liberty Loan at this hour would be a thousand times worse than at a less critical time. Don't talk peace, Buy more Liberty Bonds."

Portia Harrison "No soldier in Pershing's army flings his gun away and leaves the trenches shouting 'I've had enough of this'. The man or woman who has bought a bond and makes it an excuse for not buying another does as the soldier who would say, 'I've got enough'. The man or woman who can afford a bond and does not buy is in the class with the deserter and the slacker. Every dollar loaned is a fighting dollar. If the war is a draw instead of a complete victory because of this Loan it will mean an armed world ready for more deadly and costly conflicts."

Emma Perry "Remember whereas our boys 'over there' are risking everything, we are risking nothing. Bonds bought thru sacrifice are the decoration of the civilian soldier. The Kaiser's plea for peace is nothing but a bluff. The money is needed to take all the fight out of William Hohenzollern for all the time and then not until then can we hope for a permanent peace."

Major Phillips "Previous giving was noble and well done but you must do it over and over again as long as the war lasts, this responsibility falls on you. Our Captain has a splendid army; he has boys and America's pride; he has many majestic men of war manned by our boys in blue; he has submarines, aeroplanes and all that science can boast in war; he has submarines and aeroplanes and all that science can possibly give of skillful and wonderful works but he needs money to keep all these going, to crush the "Beast of Berlin". Help your boy crush the beast, Buy bonds, Liberty Bonds bonds for Liberty add to your already glorious work. Help our boys over the top."

Louise Anderson "If no patriotic fire burns in your heart, if with a misers greed you love your gold. Give money still. As long as the U. S. A. exists your money is safe. Loan your money here. Its the best investment you can make. You can make this a winning fight if you back the boys with bonds."

Beatrice Heggie "It is a safer proposition to invest your surplus money in Liberty Bonds than to leave it lying in the banks, only bringing interest whereas a bond brings the same regular interest and in addition helps humanity's great struggle and perhaps saves the life of your own kin. Our boys in France are not quitting. There are no quitters at the front. There must be none at home." "Buy your bonds today and subscribe to your utmost for the size of your bond registers the value you put on your citizenship in the U. S. A. and the support you are willing to give to our gallant boys fighting in France."

Marguerite Helberg "Buy Liberty Bonds of this issue and see Kaiser Bill tumble down from his throne."

Henri Michel "Of what value is money compared with life and liberty. Give all you have now. Give it as fast as you earn it. Think of the sacrifice of our allies. Do you realize how much they have given and suffered in this cause? We do not call for the sacrifices other nations have made but we do ask you to work in our glove factory and in our cannery and to encourage and buy bonds. Shall all the world sacrifice except ourselves? No! let us send men, millions of them Let us equip them. Let us work and save and buy more bonds."

SONOMA CANNERY MAKING BIG PACK

Carloads of Sonoma Tomatoes Being Shipped East. Harvest Continues and Ware House at Sebastiani Cannery Is Being Filled

Sonoma Valley tomatoes are rapidly finding their way to eastern and Pacific points and the harvest continues to keep the big Sebastiani cannery force busy early and late. Already 20,000 cases have been packed and canning will continue if the weather is favorable for several weeks yet. Eleven cars of pure tomatoes have been shipped East and one car to the San Francisco market.

Word has been received that the sun-kissed tomatoes from the "Valley of the Moon" are a fine product and Messrs. Sebastiani and Quartaroli have been complimented on their first shipments. Mr. Quartaroli is an experienced cannery man and Mr. Sebastiani has provided the most modern and sanitary plant that money could buy. The warehouse is beginning to be filled high with the solid pack tomatoes, 15 carloads of which are already waiting for government orders. One department of the cannery which is very interesting and is doing valuable advertising for Sonoma is the labeling department. Two machines are operated and in addition, the hand labeling of Miss Tony Silva is worthy of notice. Mrs. Silva who took a prize in Santa Clara County for her speed as a labeler, turned out about 935 cases in about 8 hours as against 750 turned out by one of the machines. She has kept four men busy packing away the cans which her dexterity turned out. The valuable assistance given by the State Home has averted a labor shortage and the help problem is being met.

A Vicious Amendment

In an editorial, in its issue of October 19, the Livermore Herald says: "There are a number of vicious amendments to be voted upon at the coming election but none more so than the so-called bone-dry amendment. It appears to be designed with the sole purpose of harassing the wine men and preventing them from marketing the wine from this year's vintage."

"The national prohibition law goes into effect in July, 1919, and the growers have adjusted their affairs accordingly. There has been no complaint among the vineyardists and wine-makers in this section. Although in many cases it will destroy the work of a life-time and will leave but scant hope of recouping in the future as most of the land is adapted to nothing but growing vines, the growers have accepted the situation with a patriotic spirit, recognizing, however, that what is planned as a war measure is almost certain to become a permanent condition."

"As this is a general belief, it would seem that the State prohibitionists who know the great sacrifice entailed by the vineyardists, would be willing to let well enough alone but there is no mercy in their shriveled souls and they evidently desire to take advantage of the national surge toward prohibition to complete the ruin of the vineyardists in the shortest possible space of time."

"Such a malignant spirit should and undoubtedly will be rebuked by the voters. There is reason to believe that many people who are believers in prohibition will vote against the bone-dry amendment at the coming election as a simple matter of fair play."

Stephens Dodges

Vital Issue

The supporters of Governor Stephens gleefully send out a statement made by the Berkeley Gazette to the effect that Theodore Bell was the attorney for Rev. Sykes, who was run out of Berkeley charged with conducting disloyal or anti-war meetings, the inference being that, for this reason, Bell should be placed in the same class with Sykes. The same sort of campaign was made against Hiram Johnson in his first gubernatorial campaign because he was attorney for J. Dalzell Brown, bank wrecker, etc. Peanut politics!

In the same article there appears the statement that Governor Stephens "stands for state thrift and efficiency." There is absolutely no proof upon which to base this statement. As a matter of fact the Governor approved appropriation bills increasing the cost of the state government by a round $2,000,000 and he has made no move whatever in the direction of economy or efficiency since he became governor.

If the Governor is not prepared to assure the voters of this state that he favors changes in the primary law that will make it possible for the majority of the voters of California to record their will at the polls, then it is high time that some other man, pledged to do so, be placed in the governor's office at Sacramento.

Prohibition, economy, efficiency—all the issues of the campaign sink into insignificance beside the issue of safeguarding the right of franchise. The right of the majority to govern is the keynote of the arch of Democracy. In California the majority has ceased to rule. Political manipulation has displaced political decency. Does Governor Stephens choose to remain lined up with political conspirators on the side of political manipulation, or will he come out squarely and unequivocally as being in favor of a primary election law that will guarantee to the people of this state that, in future elections, the will of the majority shall be duly recorded and regarded? —Petaluma Argus.

GRAPE GROWERS ENDORSE JO V. SNYDER

The Board of Directors of the California Grape Protective Association have voted unanimously to endorse the candidacy of Jo V. Snyder, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

They have taken this action because in his platform, Mr. Snyder says:

"At the November election the voters of California will have an opportunity to register their wish on a bone-dry prohibition initiative amendment. The Lieutenant-Governor is the President of the State Senate and only votes in case of a tie. If elected and called upon to cast a vote on the National prohibition amendment, I shall vote for the ratification of the amendment, provided a majority of the electorate express their desire for prohibition. If the majority vote is opposed to the prohibition amendment I shall vote against ratification, as I am a firm believer in the will of the People, and shall at all times be guided by their verdict."

HALLOWEEN BENEFIT PARTY AT CALIENTE POSTPONED

The Halloween festivities for St. Francis Parish scheduled for the 31st at Agua Caliente Springs Hotel has been postponed owing to the influenza. A benefit will be given later.

Jack Valente passed the physical examination at Santa Rosa Wednesday and is now in line for a soldier's uniform.

Fred Daddi and Miss Martha Zumwalt of Kenwood were married in San Francisco this week.

In San Francisco this week the brother and sister of Mrs. Bidau of the French bakery were stricken with the disease and Mrs. Lembeve died of it there and was buried here Thursday. They recently bought a home on Broadway. A relative of Mrs. Maurel's son also succumbed to the malady in San Francisco.

President F. M. Burris of the Sonoma Valley Bank was taken ill with influenza last week in San Francisco and for three days was very sick. He returned to town Wednesday.

Elvin Tomasi, the dairyman and stock raiser fell from a horse while driving cattle this week and sustained a fractured leg.

SONOMA TAKES "FLU" PRECAUTION

Schools are Closed, Public Meetings Forbidden and Every Safe Guard Thrown Around Community.

At a conference of officials at the city hall Sunday afternoon it was decided to be in the interest of the general health condition and the opinion of the public relative to influenza to close the schools, forbid all public gatherings and sound a warning thru the distribution of dodgers to the people of Sonoma Valley to beware of influenza and its aftermath, the dread pneumonia. While the outbreak of the epidemic here was confined mostly to cases brought in from San Francisco and vicinity, there was enough sickness to cause considerable anxiety and Doctor Gobar and Hays were kept going night and day while our drug stores were beseeched to furnish specifics for the disease and its prevention until they ran out of many drugs usually on hand. The use of masks were adopted by many, particularly at the cannery and glove factory. Postmaster Waggon adopted the face protection and several of our prominent club women also. The library has been closed and the librarian wishes all book to be kept by patrons until the "flu" embargo is lifted instead of being left at any of the stores or at her home. No fines will be imposed for books overdue on account of the library's closing.

The situation in this valley is not serious and people are urged to be calm and use precautions as directed by the health authorities. City health officer Albertson warns children not to congregate on the streets but to stay at home. The epidemic runs its course usually in about two months time.

Among the serious cases in the valley were Howard Gaige Fred Batto Jr., Mr. Steinkamp of Buena Vista, and the Matsuyama family. Ms. A. L. Gale and son of El Verano were on the sick list, also Steve Duhring, Eddie Goethe, Zolita Bates, Harold Hotz, Fred Schell, Miss Edrington and Doctor Gobar.

The meetings of the Native Daughters in Sonoma have been postponed until further notice.

This was an error as Newt has not engaged in any active warfare. He is still in the fire department guarding valuable stores from enemy fire. In recent letters he says he is well and that the out-look "over there" is very encouraging.

Fred Batto and Chas. McDevitt drove all night to reach the bedside of Mr. Batto's son when word reached them at Truckee that the boy was ill. They arrived at Vineburg at 4 o'clock a. m. Tuesday.

MARBLESTONE FOUND GUILTY

In the case of Eberhardt vs. Marblestone, Judge Small has decided that Marblestone is guilty and passed a suspended sentence. The case is the outcome of the loss of a purse containing over $20 which Mr. Eberhardt lost on his vacation here and which he alleged Marblestone found. At the hearing last week Marblestone appeared in his own defense but made a very poor witness. The Judge did not believe he told the truth, hence his decision. It is said that Mr. Eberhardt will sue Marblestone for the money in the courts of San Francisco where both reside.

WOMEN AND THE WAR

By MRS. HENRY P. DAVISON

Treasurer War Work Council,
National Board Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Davison

Hostess Houses in the military camps all over the country are one phase of the Y. W. C. A. War Work Council's activities. These reception houses are placed at the entrance to the cantonments for the use of women visiting their soldier relatives. So necessary have these proved that tents and borrowed rooms were pressed into use until houses could be built. Often the Association rooms in the nearest town were turned temporarily into hostess houses. "We put up an extra cot," reported one western secretary, who returned to tell the War Work Council the special needs of her community, "for an old Lithuanian mother who came a hundred miles to see her boy in camp. She cannot speak a word of English and she has to have her old black pipe every hour. But her boy loves her."

"Another charge bestowed upon us is the girl-wife of a 'bootlegger' arrested for selling whisky to soldiers. He was wild with anxiety about her till we said we would look after her. "A thirteen-year-old imp has just been turned over to our care. She ran away from a convent, and being adventurous, made straight for camp."

Any hostess can tell you heart-breaking stories of times when the hostess house has been the refuge of stricken women. She can tell you also of incidents when the hostess house has brought about a happy ending.

Prayers of gratitude for the Hostess House are murmured every night in many towns by women who are of no particular importance to any one except to some man in the army—and to God.

The commandants of the camps are as appreciative of the hostess houses as is the most forlorn woman. No house is erected except at the direct request of the commanding officer. Fifty-four houses are now in use, others are being built as fast as lumber and carpenters can be secured.

Each house has its individuality. The plans for the building at Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Georgia, were redrawn by Miss Fay Kellogg in order to save three magnificent oak trees. A fine old Southern mansion secured for the Young Women's Christian Association headquarters at Petersburg, Virginia, is as popular with the soldiers from Camp Lee as is the official hostess house.

The hostess houses serve the entire nation.

The work with girls is one of the most important functions of the War Work Council. It deals with all kinds of work with girls. Girls in small towns, in cities, in country villages, and in the great manufacturing centers are all touched by the unusual conditions of a country in a state of war preparation. Their patriotism may urge them toward unexpected pitfalls. Their very enthusiasm leads them into danger.

YANKEES RESTING BETWEEN FIGHTS

Here is a detachment of the American troops that did such brilliant fighting on the west front, converting the Hun offensive into a Hun disaster and retreat. They are resting by the roadside, smoking, joking and light-hearted, and ready to jump into the fight again.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MISS EUGENIE FROMENT

Miss Eugenie Froment, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment of this place was tendered a very enjoyable birthday party last Saturday evening to which a number of friends were bidden. The home of the young lady's parents was prettily decorated for the event, and after the Liberty Loan rally, all assembled in the spacious parlors where games, music and merry making held sway until midnight. Mrs. Ada Pauli was in charge of the games and was the inspiration of many amusing contests. Mr. Busby, violinist directed the music and was assisted by Mrs. Walter Murphy and Miss Antonette Froment.

At midnight the genial host and hostess ushered the guests into the dining room which was a festive scene with its beautifully set table where the candles gleamed on a large birthday cake amid bouquets of exquisite pink roses. The party sat down to a sumptuous repast and toasted the health and happiness of the young guest of honor and our soldiers in France while enjoying the choice viands and rare vintage for which the Froment home is noted.

After supper there was a continuation of music, dancing and singing and it was the wee small hours when the congenial company departed for their homes. Miss Froment was the recipient of many pretty gifts.

SENATOR KEARNS DIED FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Grace received a message Friday informing them of the death of Thomas Kearns, former United States Senator from Utah, which occurred at his home in Salt Lake City that day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Senator Kearns was seriously injured in an automobile accident a week ago, and following the same he suffered an attack of apoplexy. Although given the most skillful medical attention he failed to rally and gradually failed until death relieved his sufferings.

For a number of years the Kearns family lived on their ranch in the Los Guilicos valley, the ranch being recently sold. The senator will be kindly remembered by a circle of friends throughout Sonoma county. He is survived by a widow and two sons, Lieut. Thomas Kearns and Edward Kearns and a daughter, Miss Helen Kearns. —Republican

DRAWN FOR JURY DUTY

J. Bertoloni. The jurors drawn were Dan Friedger, Wm J. Kearney and F. W. Boynton.

Vote "NO" on Proposition No. 22

(BONE-DRY PROHIBITION)

CONGRESS has decreed that "war time" prohibition shall become effective on July 1, 1919.

PROPOSITION No. 22 would dry up California with her 350,000 acres in grapes, on January 1, 1919.

OUR GRAPE GROWERS NEED THOSE SIX MONTHS offered by Congress to adjust themselves to "war time" prohibition.

We believe the people of California, by a great majority sentiment, will refuse to discriminate against their own State and will protest to the end against the destruction of our great grape industry which has been fostered and encouraged for more than half a century.

Appealing to that spirit of loyalty and justice, we urge every fair-minded citizen to Vote "NO" on Proposition No. 22 CALIFORNIA GRAPE PROTECTIVE ASSN.

"THE GAMBOLS OF A GOVERNOR"

(With our apologies to Joy-Ade etc) Once there was a wise fox who liked the public feed bin (to which he had free access because a High ram jumped the job to go to Washington). He liked the fodder for fair and wanted to stay on the pay roll by yimney.

But the voters had the say. He wanted all dear simps to believe he was a real white fox and not after any provender, he came out as a polished "bone dry" candidate for governor on a platform of bunk.

When he tested out the popularity of the bone dry stunt at the primaries and found Sunny Jim Rolph got more votes than did he, the white fox concluded that a red, white and blue ribbon would be a better magnet than any bone, however dry or polished and he wanted to ditch the "bone dry" or bury it with other secret superstitions.

But alas, when he heard the joyous Bell ring and proclaim life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness with freedom on the "eats" and drink question, he saw it was all off, for the "bone dry" was going to stick to him, aye and may-be stick him.

Therefore he hired a press agent to press all the wisdom he could out of the bone dry platform and because he was a joy killer, he hired a fellow named O Joy, or rather Al Joy, to supply the deficiency to interject a little jazz gas into the gloom and tickle the risibilities of Republicans who couldn't swallow the pill without the proper coating.

Al started to burn the red fire right off the reel and made Frank Jordan the imp of his color scheme, for Jordan, secretary of State and a big chief, is out for Bell, and it sure peeved the White Fox and his menagerie to think of all that popularity going to T. B. So they bedeviled Frank and fixed him up with such trimmings of cocktails and fizzes that it would take a second edition of automobile registrations to catalogue them all.

But Frank Jordan says it pays to advertise and the more they rung in the better mixer he kept getting to be, so he kept right on passing the good word about Bell along the line to all his friends and Frank's friends are not exceeded even by the great register.

And the White Fox hugged the governor's chair even harder and feverishly sought to bury the bone and didn't want anyone to dig it up on him, but the rubes and boobies knew that the bone was his mascot and grape juice his weakness, although he protested he was bristling with war and had nothing else under his skin but Shasta.

But you can't fool all the voters even part of the time, and they are jerry to the fact that if he gets his nose into the feed bin for another 4 years, he will preach the gospel that saith the root of all evil is the grape root, wherefore he will uproot the vineyards and folks will have to wear "fluey" masks when emerging from their favorite blind pig, for blind pigs and foxes of the whiter than snow variety always go together. But lay off on the possibility! voters

ANOTHER LETTER FROM SERGEANT NEAL DODGE

Dear Mother:

Well we have moved again, always nearer Berlin and we are about due for another move, 4 or 5 days stop is about the limit. There was a battery of long range guns stationed near us and we fully expected Fritz to try to bomb them out. They have moved out now so I guess we'll have peace for a time. They are the ones that draw fire and I suppose we'll catch up with them before long. Old Fritz sure is up against it now. The end may not come this year but she sure will come next spring. There goes a Hun shell now, a dud. Oh! they are landing a long way from us, one can hear them quite a long distance away. I told you in my last letter that I was in charge of the radio station. The other night when the news came out of my raise and two other fellows raise to Sergeants, the boys insisted on our treating the bunch. Well we did all right. There were twenty-five of them and such a wild time we had.

Well we have moved again and arrived in this place yesterday and from all indications we will stay a day or two. We set up the radio station today so I get to work again tomorrow. I certainly will welcome it as it is very tiresome having nothing to do and trying to keep out of the "top soaks". Yesterday we had our fill of plums for the first time. There are a number of trees here and we raided them. They tasted powerful good too. I am writing this in the Salvation Army Hut, and I want to put a bug in your ear, if you hear of anyone with a philanthropic spirit, desiring to give to some organization helping the boys, tell them to give to the Salvation Army or Red Cross. They sure do treat us white and deserve all the credit they get. They work hard for our comfort and give, not sell many things to us. I didn't even know the Salvation Army was over here till we got on this side of the pond. Your son Neal.

Dan Friedger is the proud parent of a pretty 9½ son which came to brighten his home on Tuesday, the birthday of his 2 year old daughter. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. Henry Hyde who was ill last week with a severe cold is now convalescing.

Mrs. Henry Waltz of the M. E. parsonage has been ill with influenza in San Jose where she was visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pellissier of Lawrence Villa are expecting a visit from their son, Emile, and his bride shortly.

tters of California will not stand for the pie rats scuttling the ship and throwing the wet cargo overboard, for they have already employed an X-ray man to analyze the yelp of the fox and his foxy fallacies and they know that the bone dry is a splintered relic of the jaw bone of an ass, sadly shattered and (after Nov. 5th) sadly battered.

Moral—Do not trust white foxes. Remember Theodore Bell, candidate for Governor. Vote for him. Fight for truth, temperance and tolerance.

SLICKERS AND SLACKERS FAIL TO GET BY

The contemptible slickers and the despised slackers are two breeds decidedly scarce in Sonoma Valley but they were spotted and smoked out during last week's Liberty Loan Drive in this section.

The first critter came to light during the High School rally in the plaza Wednesday week. He had been under the surveillance of a patriotic El Verano resident for some time so when he put in an appearance here Wednesday he was held up by a delegation of citizens headed by Attorney Frank Sprague of the Advisory Board and asked if he had bought Liberty Bonds and if not why not. He was insolent and gave no satisfactory answer, his attitude being that of the "I don't have to" kind. He was made to stand and listen to some of young America's fine arguments and also forced to applaud the speaking and singing with hat in hand at the rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner". Thoroughly galled at his experience Mr. Slacker was pinned down to a date for making a purchase of Liberty Bonds. This slacker owns a ranch and draws wages too so there was no excuse for his yellow cur conduct.

The Slicker is the smooth gent who thinks he can get by without touching his pile to any extent or who bought during some past drive and thinks that's enough to stall along on, but two of these worthies were brought up with a sharp turn. One gent who had invested $100 of his ducats was corraled at a Liberty Loan rally up the valley and made to let go of $500 more. This however was a paltry amount for said gent has a "can" fairly bulging with shekels so the Council of Defense got him up on the carpet at Santa Rosa last Friday with others of his stripe had been summoned and he there and then coughed up a man's size buy.

A well known in fact prominent orchardist and authority on horticulture was caught trying to put over the slicker tricks too and the doubting Thomas who thought he could side step the 4th issue of bonds in the great war was also rounded up and given a lesson in practical patriotism. No the varmint who wants to live under the stars and stripes and seeks to hoard all the money he makes here indifferent to American fate in the war will be given short shift and it will be shorter and shorter too for public opinion is in no mood to be trifled with at this stage of the game. Sonoma Valley is doing right in running the yellow kind out into the open.

VINEBURG

I. Monson, the new buyer of the Sohl place has arrived in our midst and will be made welcome by hospitable Vineburg.

We have had news thru the different relatives of Ren Vernon, Dick Vernon, Al Groskopf, Harold Cariger, Al Stoneburg, Arthur Coops, Harry Andrieux and others that the brave soldiers laddies from this part of the valley are "over there" with bells and will bring medals back with them for their bravery.

William Clewe was a busy man on Thursday loading out a car of dried fruit at Batto's spur and Vineburg. But Willie got there all the same as he knows his business.

We know a man who has a fine Hudson car for sale but it is such a fine one he won't sell it.

Joseph Groskopf and family of Oakland who have been guests of the Clements family of El Verano were visitors at Whispering Pines lately.

Otto E. Sohl and his estimable wife who have been residents of North Vineburg for the past seven years have sold their pretty home and bade their many friends a fond good bye. They left last Tuesday for Seattle, Washington to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Sohl were highly respected in this vicinity and many friends wish them "Bon Voyage" and good luck.

Cedric Cutter and family are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cutter. Welcome home, Teddy, Old boy.

The only topic in political circles at the present time to amount to anything in a local way is the contest between Mr. John Murray and Mr. Jep Valente for the office of Coh-stable. Both are good men and have many staunch friends in this vicinity. May the best man win.

Leo Weinberger of the Strand Theatre S. F. has been up to his ranch during the "flu" scare. Leo says Vineburg's great white way is good enough for him these days.

Mr. Mabel Brown was called to Mill Valley this week on account of the serious illness of her sister.

Mrs. Carrie Dependender the efficient teacher at Huichica has been away during the vacation of the past week.

Huichica is making a record in the collection of peach and apricot pits for the war saving idea is deeply instilled in the patriotic pupils.

Mrs. W. R. Hansen went to San Francisco on Monday last.

J. C. Rector of the S. P. baggage rooms in San Francisco was up Sun- and Monday visiting his folks here.

Ralph Young, only son of Geo. C. Young of Petaluma who formerly resided here, died at Mare Island of influenza Friday night. His mother died last April.

EASY JIM.

SAY FAREWELL AT CAMP FREMONT LINE

Mrs. A. M. Thomson and children motored down to Camp Fremont this week to bid farewell to Lt. Thomson of the Medical Corps who has been ordered "over seas". They were permitted to go only as far as the line on account of the quarantine at the cantonment and it was a sad parting with husband and father. After the leave taking the Lt. wrote his family a most beautiful letter telling them how hard it was to be separated from them and the realization of it all as they left him behind the lines. Sonoma friends wish Dr. Thomson all good speed.

Raul Emperan was a visitor around the Bay last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Venton who gave such valuable aid in the office of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign manager here has decided to go to Sacramento where she has accepted a fine position with the S. P. and will keep house for her brother. Miss Venton will greatly miss by friends in general and particularly in the A. M. WOMEN AND THE WAR

By MRS. HENRY P. DAVISON
Treasurer War Work Council
National Board Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Davison opened the tin she had been hoarding her times and quarters against this day. The money was, scarcely enough. Nevertheless she started. She walked the first eighteen miles. Then her strength gave out, and she took a train.

She did not know that visitors to Camp Funston stay in Junction City, eleven miles away. So she got off the train at Fort Riley. An officer set her right and she reached Junction City after 1. k. Somehow she found a rooming house. Some one there stole five dollars from her. Five of the precious dollars she had earned over the wash tub and saved by walking. Terror-stricken, she crept out of the house when no one was looking.

Later in the night a soldier found her trembling in the street, and took her to the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association, rooms which the War Work Council had opened as a clearing-house for troubles. The poor frightened woman was put to bed, but she was too miserable to sleep. The matron got up at daybreak, built a fire, and comforted her. The son's commanding officer was reached by telephone early in the morning, and the boy came to his mother on the first trolley-car he could catch.

The two spent long, low-voiced hours together, perhaps the last hours they will have this side of heaven. Every moment was as precious as a month had been last year. The old lady had still one present worry. The boy's bad cold might turn into pneumonia if she left him. But she had not money enough to stay another night and buy a ticket home. When the matron told her that her bed was free, she broke down and cried and cried.

"I did not know there was so much pity left in the world," she sobbed. She stayed till her boy's cold was better. Then she went back to her seventeen washings and her memories.

Because of the certainty of just such cases as this was Governmental sanction given to the activities of the War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A. From the Pacific to the Atlantic its field extends. Every state in the Union has its members. Urgent appeals for help are its cause and its

In an Illinois prairie town lives a widow who launders seven men's hats of wash a week and every night thanks God for having put pity into the hearts of women.

To her came one day a letter from her only son. He was then at Camp Funston, Kansas, learning to be a soldier. The letter begged her to come and see him before he was sent to France.
